At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present County Judge O. E. Effenberger and Commissioners Wesley Schulmerich and A. H. Tilden, the following business was transacted.

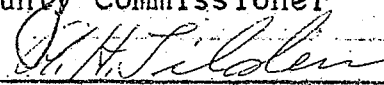

Rex Wakefield talked to the Court about the Boyer Cut-off and proposed timber sales in the Siuslaw Forrest.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Douglas and Merle Ferrelle talked to the Court about a proposed subdivision along the Nehalem River.

Mr. Tom Stacer and Talked to the Court about the recent Stewart Logging Company trespass suit. They advised the Court that a re-survey of the trespass had been made since the disclosure of the finding of the quarter corner and that they were going to have a conference with Mr. McMinimee in an attempt to settle the amount of trespass. They also called the Court's attention to the fact, that had they been advised of the finding of the quarter corner, they would not have gone ahead with the suit.
