At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present County Judge H. Clay Myers, and Commissioners A. H. Tilden and L. C. Schulmerich, the following business was transacted.

An order was signed directing the County Treasurer to refund overpayment of taxes to certain taxpayers.

Bill Shipley talked to the Court about ordering material for building some new fireplaces for the county parks. The Court authorized him to order the necessary supplies.

Ann Baker talked to the Court about the dike which she and Mr. McLain are building across Hodgdon Creek at Netarts. The Court agreed to take Bill Anderson and look at the area in question.

Glenn Johnston, Dale M. Sayles, Vern A. Lucas, Ted Jacob, George Milne, Ezra Galloway, Has Leuthold, Cyril A. Jacob and Marvin Pangborn met with the Court to discuss the matter of appointments to the County Fair Board. The Court advised the group that Bill Vaughn of the south end of the county would be one of the appointees. The names of Walter Ackley, Marvin Pangborn, Ted Jacob and Dan Sackley were presented to the Court. The group indicated they were opposed to the re-appointment of John Gienger. The Court indicated they would consider the matter and make an appointment within the near future.
