At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present Commissioners A. H. Tilden and L. C. Schulmerich, the following business was transacted.

Mr. Swanson visited the Court to request that an underpass be provided on the Whiskey Creek Road for his use in transporting farm equipment and cattle. He was advised that the County could not furnish this underpass for the infrequent use he would make of it.

David Eagleton talked to the Court about the job of dump attendant for the Bay City and Manzanita Dumps. He agreed to furnish his own cat and take care of both dumps for $150 monthly. He will start work sometime during the first week in April.

Harold LeDuc talked to the Court about county insurance.

The Court canvassed votes of the Northwoods Water District election. and signed a proclamation and order establishing the district.

An order was signed directing the County Clerk to destroy certain valueless records and papers.

Vern Scovell talked to the Court about cutting trees in some of the Park area along the Nehalem River.
