

Wednesday, May 22, 1963

At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present County Judge H. Clay Myers and Commissioners A. H. Tilden and L. C. Schulmerich, the following business was transacted

= Orders were signed making transfers within certain funds in the budget.

Contract was approved for the purchase of lots in the Avalon Subdivision by Burford and Arline Wilkerson and Glen and Marie Hawkins.

Mr. Temple of the Headlight Herald called on the Court to ask that Tillamook County adverstide in the Mail-Away Edition. The Court agreed to take an add for $50, which is the amount which can be spared from the depleted advertising fund.

Jeff Brennan, Rod Norris and Bob Wilson of the Tax Payers' Association visited the Court to assist with the budget preparation.

H. Clay Myers
County Judge
A. H. Tilden
County Commissioner
L. C. Schulmerich
County Commissioner

Friday, May 24, 1963

At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present County Judge H. Clay Myers and Commissioners A. H. Tilden and L. C. Schulmerich, the following business was transacted/

An order was signed recinding order setting restrictions for Haystack Heights Subdivision. New restrictions will be drawn up and recorded for property in this county-owned subdivision.

Ed Byeriee met with the Court to discuss the matter of his offer for lots in the Haystack Heights subdivision. After having been furnished with revised appraisals on the lots in question, the Court agreed to sell 7 lots in Block 1 for $6750.

H. Clay Myers
County Judge
A. H. Tilden
County Commissioner
L. C. Schulmerich
County Commissioner