At a regular meeting of the County Court on the date set above at which time were present County Judge H. Clay Myers and Commissioners A. H. Tilden and L. C. Schulmerich, the following business was transacted.

Sheriff's Tax foreclosure sale was held. Immediately after the sale E. W. Stowers asked to purchase the 42 acre site of the old garbage dump near Oceanside for the advertised price of $60,000. Inasmuch as five different parties applied immediately after the sale to purchase the same lots in Block 30 Manhattan Beach, the Court met at 1:30 with said persons. One party withdrew his request and inasmuch as the four remaining could not come to an agreement, the Court announced that the 8 lots in controversy would be withdrawn and re-advertised at a later date. Those involved were E. R. Matthews, George Edwards, Carmine Tomacelli and Mrs. Pat Johnson.
